My dear Sir,

My Colleague Mr Hill,

has forwarded to me your very welcome letter of the 30th I much regret that feebleness of health has compelled me to leave London a fortnight earlier than I kind intercede. Our Good friend Rip Kantiman had husband Pac on the bleasure of seeing You, and has pleasure it would have been to Read

7 battles fought and victories one in a common, prestand powered cause I cannot Express.

Regretting that this comprom be, just as it proceeding the hope of being part of a more favourable Year

I am Dear Sir

Thomas Walker.
